

CONDITIONS OF A CARRIER LICENCE

Division 3 of Part 3 of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (the Act) provides for the standard conditions of a carrier licence, including the following:

- (a) section 61 (a carrier licence is subject to the conditions specified in Schedule 1 to the Act);
- (b) section 62 (a carrier licence is subject to the condition set out in section 152AZ of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (the CCA), which deals with standard access obligations);
- (c) section 62A (a carrier licence is subject to the condition set out in section 152BCO of the CCA, which deals with access determinations);
- (d) section 62B (a carrier licence is subject to the condition set out in section 152BDF of the CCA, which deals with binding rules of conduct);
- (e) section 62C (a carrier licence is subject to the condition set out in section 152BEC of the CCA, which deals with access agreements);
- (f) section 63 (a carrier licence is subject to such conditions as are declared by the Minister, by legislative instrument, as applying to the carrier licence).

Note 1: All Commonwealth Acts are registered on the Federal Register of Legislation which may be accessed at www.legislation.gov.au.

Note 2: The conditions set out in the following declaration made under section 63 of the Act may also apply to a carrier licence:

- (a) Carrier Licence Conditions (Networks supplying Superfast Carriage Services to Residential Customers) Declaration 2014.

This declaration and other declarations made under section 63 of the Act are registered on the Federal Register of Legislation.

Note 3: Division 3 of Part 3 of the Act also contains other provisions relating to the conditions of a carrier licence (see, in particular, section 67, which contains special provisions relating to the conditions of a carrier licence; and section 68, which deals with compliance with the conditions of a carrier licence).
